

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The African Development Report 2008/09 was prepared by a staff team of the African Development Bank under the overall guidance of the Bank's Chief Economist, Louis Kasekende, the immediate supervision of the Director, Development Research Department, Léonce Ndikumana, and with Victor A.B. Davies as task manager. The report team comprised Abdellatif Bernoussi, Manager, Networking and Research Partnerships Division, Désiré Vencatachellum, Lead Economist, Research Department; Damoni Kitabire, Lead Economist, Fragile States Unit; and James Wahome, Macroeconomist, Fragile States Unit.

The report draws on background papers produced by Kwesi Aning, Paul Collier, Håvard Hegre, Anke Hoeffler, Robert Muggah, Mansoob Murshed and Nuwe Amanya Mushega. The report benefited from in-depth external peer review by Robert Bates, Mongi Boughzala and James K. Boyce. The quality of the manuscript was greatly enhanced by comments and suggestions from Bank staff at internal review meetings. The report team thanks especially Zeinab El Bakri, Vice President, Sector Operations, who led the discussion at the internal review, as well as John Baffoe, Albert Eneas Gakusi, Guy Blaise Nkamleu, Emanuele Santi and Boukary Savadogo, who all gave constructive comments.

The report team is grateful for competent editorial services from Felicia Avwontom, translation coordination from Audrey Verdier-Chouchane, research assistance from Imen Chorfi and Jouini Nizar, and administrative support by Abiana Nelson and Rhoda Bangurah.
