ANNEXES 15
Introduction

The event is expected to bring together about 4,000 participants, including delegates of AfDB Member States from Africa, America, Europe and Asia (Ministers of Economy and Finance, Central Bank Governors) as well as representatives of several regional and international financial organizations.

These Meetings will discuss several themes of common interest to the African continent that are in line with AfDB strategic orientations for the coming years. The Meetings this year are of particular significance as they mark the commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Bank. The Annual Meetings also coincide with a number of international events seeking to find innovative solutions for the development of Africa, other developing regions and the world in general. The events will cover issues related to development finance, climate change and the setting new goals for sustainable development.

a. Reception at the Félix Houphouët Boigny International Airport of Abidjan and Transportation to the City

An Information and Protocol Desk will be set up at the Félix Houphouët Boigny International Airport of Abidjan to expedite entry and departure formalities for participants. Upon arrival, Heads of Delegations will be received by the Protocol Services at the Abidjan Airport VIP Louges. A car with a driver and a liaison officer will be provided for each Governor.

Shuttle buses will transport participants from the airport to their hotels and from their hotels to the Congress Centre of Sofitel Hôtel Ivoire, where the Annual Meetings will be held.

b. Hotel Accommodation in Abidjan

Abidjan, the economic capital of the Republic of Côte d’Ivoire, is a metropolitan city of more than five (5) million inhabitants. A hub in West Africa and also known as Small Manhattan, Abidjan has many places that are suitable for meetings, conferences and various high-level seminars. The Republic of Côte d’Ivoire is a major tourist and business destination.
Abidjan has several hotels and residence-hotels of all categories (see list attached).

The Vice-Presidency-General Secretariat of the Bank will make room reservations for Governors, Alternate Governors and special guests at Sofitel Hôtel Ivoire.

For all other participants and observers at the Annual Meetings who will be responsible for their own accommodation, the Ivorian authorities have negotiated reduced rates for the period with the owners of hotels and residence-hotels. The list of these hotels and resorts managed by the National Organizing Committee (NOC) for the Republic of Côte d’Ivoire and their rates are available on the portal of the 2015 Annual Meetings. Reservations must therefore be made through this platform provided by the NOC on the AfDB website. The list of hotels and residences can be accessed through the following link: www.booking-abidjan.com
c. Venue of the Annual Meetings

The Sofitel Hôtel Ivoire Complex is located in Cocody-Blockhaus. It will be the main Activity Centre for the 2015 Annual Meetings. With its large Congress Centre with 1,500 seats, the Tower, the main building and a few luxury tents, the Conference Centre offers participants a luxurious setting for a pleasant meeting venue.
a. Geographical Features of the Country

Located in the western part of the African continent and in the tropics, Côte d’Ivoire covers an area of 322,462 km². It is bounded to the south by the Atlantic Ocean, to the east by Ghana, to the north by Burkina Faso and Mali, and to the west by Guinea and Liberia. Yamoussoukro has been the political capital of the country since 1983 and Abidjan is the economic capital. In addition to Abidjan and Yamoussoukro, the other major cities are Bouaké, the second largest city in the country; San Pedro, which has the second largest port in the country; Daloa, Korhogo, Man and Abengourou.

The official language is French. The languages spoken in the country are Baoulé, Malinké-Dioula, Sénoufo, Dan, Agni, Bété, Attié, Guéré, etc...

With an annual growth rate of 3.3%, the total population was estimated at 22,670,000 inhabitants in 2013, with at least 3 million immigrant workers living in the country with their families, mainly from other countries of the sub-region.

b. Climatic Conditions
Côte d'Ivoire is divided into four (4) agro-climatic zones:

1. The tropical transition zone with a single rainy season from April to October and rainfall of 950 to 1,700 mm/year;

2. The equatorial transition zone 1 with two rainy seasons from March to June and September to October, with a total rainfall of 950 to 1,600 mm/year;

3. The equatorial transition zone 2 also has two rainy seasons from April to July (heavy rainfall) and from September to November (irregular rainfall), with rainfall of 1,300 to 2,400 mm/year;

4. The mountainous zone with one long rainy season from March to October, and rainfall of 1,500-2,200 mm/year.

A country with tiered rows of plateaus, steep terraces sometimes forming ledges, Côte d'Ivoire is essentially flat. On this tabular set of ironstone, smooth ruptures are caused by garlands of hills.

c. Currency and Exchange

The currency in Abidjan is the CFA franc, the common currency for member countries of the West African Economic and Monetary Union (UEMOA). It can be exchanged for other foreign currencies at commercial banks, foreign exchange bureaux and hotels. The CFA franc is pegged to the Euro at a fixed exchange rate of €1 = CFAF 655.957.

Convertible currencies can be exchanged freely in banks, foreign exchange bureaux and major hotels.
d. Telecommunications

National, international and Internet communication services are available at reasonable costs in all hotels in Abidjan.

Communication in available in Côte d’Ivoire through earth telecommunication lines, submarine systems and fiber optics. Five mobile phone network operators use the international GSM system (Orange, MTN, MOOV, GREEN, and KOOZ). One can opt for a subscription contract or for prepaid cards. Prepaid cards are sold by authorized distributors, and are also available in shopping centres.

a. The City

Abidjan, the most populous city in French-speaking West Africa, is the economic capital of Côte d’Ivoire, and Yamoussoukro is the administrative and political capital. According to the country’s authorities, Abidjan had a population of 4,707,000 inhabitants in 2014, representing 20% of the total population of the country. Only Lagos, the former capital of Nigeria, has a higher population in the region. Regarded as the West African cultural hub, Abidjan is constantly growing and is characterized by high industrialization and urbanization. The city is divided into two parts, which are further subdivided into municipalities, each with its own characteristics: the modern districts, which are more of the European type, are Plateau and Cocody, with posh villas and large gardens, while others like Marcory and Treichville, tend to reproduce the African-village settings. Around Ebrié lagoon, one can also find houses on stilts.

Abidjan also has the largest port in West Africa.

For the traveler, Abidjan offers many amenities: hotels, sports complexes, nightlife, beaches, etc.

One can also visit the Banco Park at the entrance to the city, which is a remnant of the forest that once surrounded the lagoon, with its central lake, coffee and cocoa plantations, and the small river that is used for washing clothes. There are also a few notable landmarks: the mosques of Cocody and Treichville, St. Paul’s Cathedral, the City Museum, the Ki Yi M’Bock Village, the Museum of Contemporary Art, the National Museum, and the Abidjan centre for handicrafts, or Centre artisanal de la ville d’Abidjan (CAVA), located in the Treichville municipality. Many music festivals are also organized regularly in the city.
b. Tourist Sites and Historical Monuments

Seaside Tourism

Côte d'Ivoire has 520 km of coastline on the Atlantic Ocean: fine sandy beaches, coconut trees, creeks, cliffs, lagoons for swimming, surfing, angling, water sports, and sailing. Grand-Bassam, Assinie and Sassandra are the main seaside tourist destinations. In addition, there are cities such as San Pedro, which boasts the sumptuous Monogaga Beach, and Grand Béréby, which owes its popularity to its gorgeous Baie des sirènes (Mermaid Bay) beach.

Ecotourism

The country has many national parks and nearly 300 nature reserves that offer a wide variety of wildlife and landscapes from the North to the South. Since 1996, the Ivorian Government has been supervising a project to protect wildlife areas in Côte d'Ivoire. In addition to these, Ivorian villages also offer beautiful sites and attractions. However, their sacred nature makes their development and access to the general public very delicate.

Traditional and Religious Tourism

Traditional tourism that can easily be supplemented with cultural tourism: The Ivorian population is a mosaic of over sixty ethnic groups representing as many beliefs, languages, traditions and crafts. In Yamoussoukro, there is the Our Lady of Peace Basilica, whose dome is larger than that of St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. The north of the country, with a Muslim majority, also has many ancient mosques.
c. Weather Conditions during the Annual Meetings (May 2015)

In May, the average temperature is generally 25°C minimum and 32°C maximum, with six (6) hours of sunlight per day. Approximately 16 days of rainfall are expected during the month.

Practical Information

Furthermore, a valid passport is required for entry into Côte d'Ivoire. A national identity card is sufficient for ECOWAS nationals. The validity of passports must be for at least six months from the date of entry into Côte d'Ivoire.

As a hospitality measure for all participants in the 2015 Annual Meetings, the Government of Côte d'Ivoire intends to facilitate the granting of visas to the various participants and any persons accompanying them.

As regards the organization of health services during the 2015 Annual Meetings, the following arrangements have been made:

1. A medical centre to provide primary health care services at the Conference Centre of the Annual Meetings; the services will be provided jointly by the Côte d’Ivoire emergency ambulance service (SAMU) and the AfDB Medical Centre.

2. Medical centres have been identified, with referral services for specialist care. These facilities are accessible either directly or through the emergency ambulance service (SAMU) to people who will be at the Conference Centre of the Annual Meetings, as well as in all the major hotels hosting conference participants. The recommended hospitals and clinics are: Polyclinique International Sainte Anne Marie (PISAM), Polyclinique du Groupe Médical du Plateau, Polyclinique Indénié, Polyclinique des Deux Plateaux, Clinique Danga and Polyclinique Panthéon Plateau. Delegates who reside in the Bassam area will be assisted by a SAMU team full time.

The SAMU emergency number is 185 or 22 44 53 53/60 50 41 36.

Prevention and Management of Ebola Virus Disease

AfDB and the host country, Côte d’Ivoire, have both taken stringent and quick measures to protect the population against the Ebola Virus Disease currently affecting the West African region. To date, no case of the Ebola Virus Disease has been detected in Côte d’Ivoire. In addition, the WHO does not recommend any travel restrictions or restrictions to trade in the West African region, even in countries where the Ebola Virus Disease has been confirmed.

To ensure that people remain immune to the disease, it is important to remember that:

1. Transmission of the Ebola virus from one human being to another occurs when one gets into contact with infected bodily fluids such as blood, saliva, vomit and feces, or into contact with infected/dead animals or human beings.
2. Symptoms of the Ebola Virus Disease (EVD) include the sudden onset of fever, fatigue, muscle pain, headache and sore throat, followed by vomiting, diarrhea, skin rash, organ failure and bleeding.

3. The incubation period, i.e. the time interval between infection with the virus and appearance of symptoms, ranges from two to 21 days. Human beings are not infectious until they develop the symptoms.

4. The EVD fatality rate is about 50%, and it ranged from 25% to 90% in past outbreaks. Patient survival improves significantly when patients seek healthcare early.

THAT IS WHY IT IS STRONGLY ADVISED TO:

a. Avoid handshakes, hugs and unnecessary touching when greeting;

b. Wash your hands regularly after visiting the toilet and before eating. Use water and soap. Use alcohol-based hand gels;

c. Avoid eating, touching or handling wild animals, dead or alive;

d. Avoid touching the sick and/or the dead; and

e. Report immediately to a health facility if you have any of the symptoms listed above; or any other symptom.

For a list of hospitals and clinics recommended by the AfDB, see Annex VI
