

WARNING AGAINST FRAUDULENT USE OF THE AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK'S (AfDB) NAME

It has come to our attention that individuals and various agents (e.g. travel, shipping, employment, etc.) are purporting to be in a position to help in doing business with the Bank with the intention of soliciting funds as compensation.

The African Development Bank Group takes this violation of the Bank's corporate value of integrity seriously and is committed to working with the appropriate authorities to fight fraudulent schemes of this nature.

We, the African Development Bank Group, hereby confirm that we:

- NEVER requests payments from job seekers, consultants, service providers, suppliers, etc. in exchange for employment or in order to be awarded a contract to provide goods or services.
- ADVERTISE all vacant positions on our website: [www.afdb.org /job Seekers](http://www.afdb.org/job Seekers) (down the page)/vacancies. If a vacancy has not been advertised on the website, it does not exist.

We therefore, advise all individuals and business entities wishing to do business with the Bank to:

- NEVER give or send any money to anyone in order to get a job or service contract, or to do any business with the Bank.
- REPORT all fraudulent attempts to the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire Police and inform the Bank using the following email address: security@afdb.org.
