SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

1. This document is the thirteenth ORPU report of the Bank's monitoring of procurements by regional borrower member countries for Bank Group-financed projects. The information it contains comes primarily from contracts recorded in the Bank's SAP-PMS (Project Management System). Chapters 1 and 2 of the Report present the context and method of analysis, while chapter 3 reviews the 1,389 contracts approved by the Bank Group in 2007. Chapter 4 is based on a sample of 844 contracts with a unit value higher than UA 50,000, the cumulative value of which amounts to 98% of the total value of contracts approved in 2007. It should be noted that, since 1997, contracts of a total individual value in excess of UA 50,000 accounted for at least 98% of the annual total contract value. This chapter focuses on the procurement process, the procurement methods actually used, and the bidder participation levels. Chapter 5 considers contract financing, i.e. the time required by the procurement process, the complaints and the contract amendments.

2. In comparing the basic principles of the Bank's procurement of goods, works and consultancy services on the one hand, with the procurement activities in the borrowing countries and their monitoring by the Operations departments on the other hand, as presented in this report, the following major comments could be made:

i) Economy and Efficiency: The various measures taken for reasons of economy and efficiency continue to produce positive results. The measures include, in particular, intensifying the distribution of the standard bidding documents, in both printed and electronic versions available on the Bank's website, the application of Presidential Instruction PI No. 02/98 on Procedures for the Review of Procurement Documents, the participation of procurement experts in missions to launch new projects, as well as in the supervision and mid-term review missions, in addition to the regular organization of procurement seminars in regional member countries and for Bank staff. In 2007, ORPU organized 14 national workshops in regional member countries on project implementation and procurement management not only for project officers but also for staff of executing agencies. This figure was 11 in 2006. Furthermore, 9 training workshops on procurement were organized in Tunis by ORPU and CHRM for Bank staff (8 workshops had been organized in 2006).

ii) Equal Access to Contracts for all Eligible Bidders: Firms of 60 countries (as against 62 in 2006) were awarded 1,389 contracts financed by the Bank Group. Moreover, firms of 62 member countries (43 regional and 19 non-regional) took part in the procurement process, which led to the award of 844 contracts of individual values above UA 50,000 in 2007. The Bank continued to organize opportunity seminars for firms of member countries with a view to disseminating information on consultancy services and the supply of goods and works for contracts financed by the Bank in member countries. In 2007, ORPU organized 12 seminars in RMCs on business opportunities (BOS) as against 9 in 2006. Many participants took part in these seminars both in regional and non-regional member countries. This very clearly illustrates the growing interest of the consultants, contractors and suppliers of member countries in Bank activities.

iii) Participation of Regional Contractors and Suppliers: Firms and suppliers registered in regional member countries won 86% of the overall total number of contracts and 52% of the total value of contracts approved in 2007. The corresponding figures for 2006 were respectively 85% and 51%. Generally speaking, the firms of regional member countries won more contracts than those of non-regional member countries, often on their own territory (particularly in the case of supplies and works, following local competitive bidding or local shopping). However, statistics show that regional firms won mainly contracts for small or average amounts, whereas the more substantial contracts went to non-regional firms. On the other hand, several international firms have set up offices in the local African environment, and their operations are considered as regional operations.

iv) Transparency: In 2007, the Bank registered 15 complaints. Most of them were deemed inadmissible, and were rejected; they concerned cases of unjustified accusations. The Borrower was requested to investigate the others and to provide the plaintiffs with the appropriate answers. No case was followed up or submitted to the Procurement Review Committee (PRC). It should be recalled that between 2002 and 2007, the Committee received no admissible complaint.

3. Concerning the time-frame for processing procurement documents, the review focused on a sample of 190 documents in 2007 as against 211 in 2006. There is a significant reduction in the average processing time for documents relating to the procurement of goods and works; the time has reduced from 18.3 months in 2006 to 15.7 months in 2007. The same applies to the average processing time for documents relating to the procurement of consultancy, down from 14.5 months in 2006 to 13.1 months in 2007. As a result of the measures taken by the Bank, the number of training workshops on project implementation increased between 2005 and 2007, and those for the training of Bank staff also increased over the same period. These measures also concern assistance to the countries in question for procurement capacity building, including joint World Bank and ADB preparation of CPARs or Country Procurement Assessment Reports, as well as the harmonization of procurement documents in multilateral development aid institutions. The overriding goal remains the proposal to decentralize and delegate authority to regional offices so as to involve borrowers in the decision–making process. Finally, in collaboration with the International Harmonization Programme, the Bank started in 2005 to revise its rules and procedures for the procurement of goods, works and consultancy services so as to ease the flow of the procurement process and harmonize the said rules and procedures with those of similar multilateral development institutions, taking into account the vital needs of Regional Member Countries. This exercise is being finalized, and the new regulations will be adopted soon.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. The purpose of this thirteenth Annual Report on the Procurement of Goods, Works and Services, compiled by the ORPU Unit, is to inform Management and the Boards of Directors of the Bank's procurement operations, through a statistical study for the year 2007.

1.2. The report comprises the following key sections: analysis of procurement methods used by the Bank's borrowers, as well as the geographic distribution of the bidders and the awardees. The study also focuses on a breakdown of the contracts awarded by size and procurement method used, the procurement documents processing timeframe, complaints, and amendments to contracts approved in 2007.

1.3. SAP-PMS[1] (Projects Management System), generated data based on information from the Operations Departments as contracts were being approved.

1.4. This database showed that 1,389[2] contracts were approved in 2007, 844 of had a unit value of more than UA 50,000. These contracts account for 98% of the total value of the contracts or 61% of their number. The number of contracts approved by the Bank over the period in question increased by 19% up from 1,120 in 2006 to 1,389 in 2007; the total amount of these contracts also increased sharply by 68%, up from UA 460 million in 2006 to UA 772 million in 2007.

1.5. In many respects, this report provides analyses of the major trends underlying the award of contracts for goods, works and consultancy services by comparing the key variables for 2005, 2006 and 2007, such as total contract amount and breakdown in the total contract volume by amount, market share, trend between the regional and non-regional countries, and the frequency of use of the various procurement methods.

1.6. For reasons of relevance in the comparison of figures, it is important to note that since 2005, the statistics used in preparing the annual report are extracted systematically from the SAP-PMS system towards the end of March. It is also worth pointing out that project officers enter statistics on contracts each day into the SAP-PMS system, and therefore the number of contracts put into the system increases constantly throughout the year.

[1] SAP is the integrated data-processing system used by the Bank since 2001

[2] The statistics which served for drawing up this report were extracted from the SAP-PMS system in the third week of March 2008. It is worth mentioning that at that time some contracts already approved and signed in 2007 had still not been incorporated into the system.

2. METHODOLOGY

2.1. The study covers contracts approved in 2007 for Bank-financed projects. Yet, the overall sample does not take into account amendments to procurement contracts (dealt with separately in paragraph 5.5) or contracts awarded on non-project loan resources (lines of credit, structural and sectoral adjustment programmes).

2.2. As in previous reports, the approach used consisted in preparing:

- Statistics based on all the 1,389 contracts approved in 2007 or procurement data which provide general information on the unit amounts, awardees' nationality, and contract source of finance.

- Statistics for procurement process management (procurement methods, bids, and documents' processing time-frames and complaints), prepared from contracts worth more than UA 50,000, for which detailed data concerning the procedure for their award has been obtained.

2.3. An analysis of the data helped to determine the contract sample size above UA 50,000 or 844 contracts worth a total of UA 759 million. The value of that sample amounts to 98% of all contracts approved in 2007 and 61% of their number. From 2005 to 2007, contracts with an individual value of over UA 50,000 correspond to least 98% of the total value of the contracts for the year (Table 1).

3. STATISTICS ON THE 2007 PROCUREMENT PERFORMANCE

3.1. Contract Size

3.1.1. The number of contracts (based on information from SAP), increased significantly between 2006 (1120 contracts) and 2007 (1389 contracts); the total contract value rose from UA 460 million to UA 772 million (or an increase of nearly 68%). The average contract size registered a 35% increase from UA 410.615 in 2006 to UA 555.683 in 2007. In addition, the maximum amount per contract registered in 2007 was UA 58.9 million as against UA 80.7 million in 2006.

3.1.2. The average size of the goods contracts decreased in 2007, from UA 245 314 in 2006 to UA 193 267 in 2007, or a 21% decrease; that of the works contract almost doubled, rising from UA 769,034 to UA 1 414 081 (+84%). As for the services contracts, they dropped in comparison to 2006, falling from 207.913 to 179 337 (-14%) (Table 2).

All Contracts	464 863	410 615	555 683

3.1.3. The proportion of small contracts (under UA 50,000) represents about one-third of the total number of contracts, over the last three years (32% in 2005, 35% in 2006 and 39% in 2007). For the higher tranches, the proportions are also almost equivalent to those of the previous years. For all three years, about half of the contracts are below UA 100,000 (Table 3 and Graph 1). Lastly, the largest contract registered was a motorway construction contract worth UA 58.9 million awarded to a Moroccan firm.

3.1.4. Concerning the contract value, the level of small size contracts (under UA 50.000) is on the decline compared to 2006: 1.6% against 2.1% in 2006.

3.1.5. From 2005 to 2007, the largest portion of the total contract value for 2005-2007 is between UA 1-5 million, in the proportion of: 2007: 25%; 2006: 22.57%; 2005: 36.2% (Table 4 and Graph 2).

3.1.6. From 2005 to 2007, the breakdown for the number of contracts for goods and services is almost identical (Graph 3). In the case of the works contracts, the most significant tranches for 2007 are the intermediate tranches with 24% for the UA 100,000-250,000 tranche, 25% for the UA 250,000-500,000 tranche, and 18% for the UA 1,000,000-5,000,000 tranche (Graph 4). In the case of the services contracts, the most significant tranches for 2007 are the UA 0 – 15,000 tranche with 21%, the UA 25,000 – 50.000 tranche with 20%, and the UA 100,000 – 250,000 tranche with 16% (Graph 5).

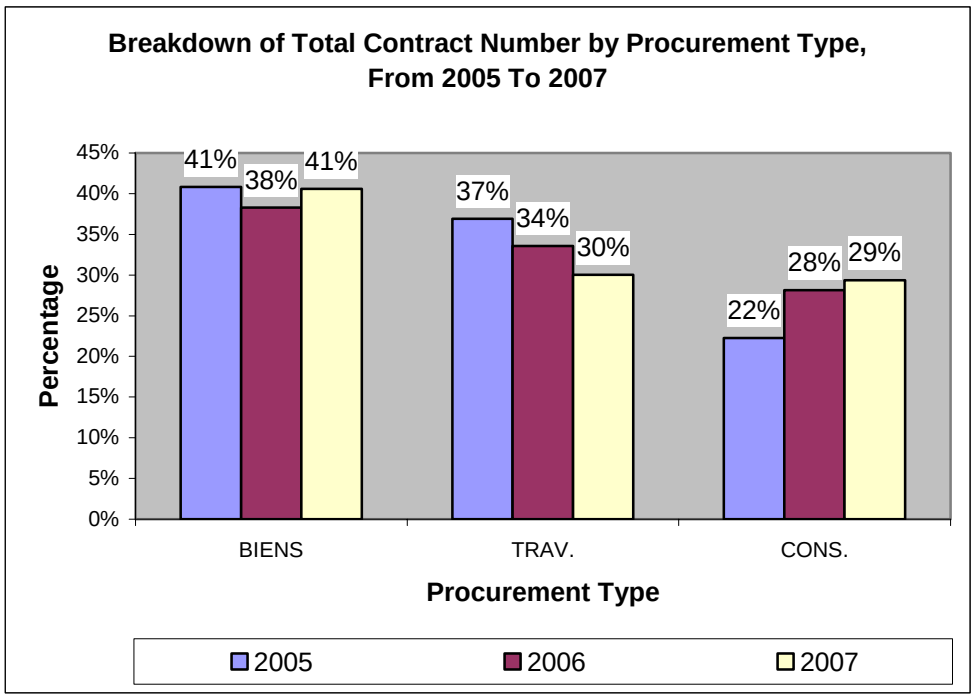

Graph 5

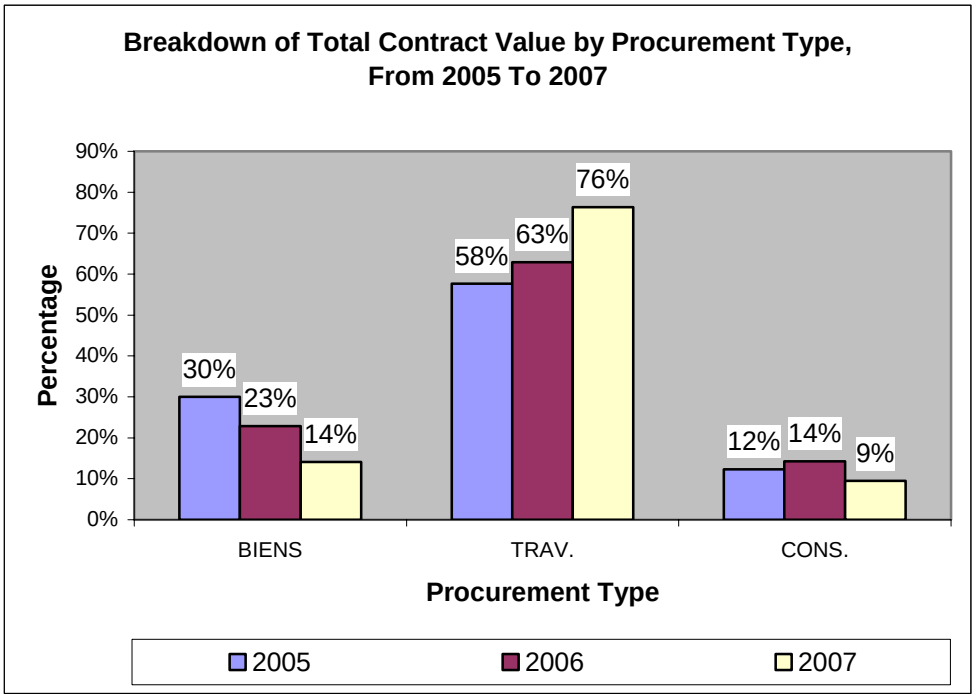

3.1.7. The contract number is still dominated by goods (41%, 38% and 41% in 2005, 2006 and 2007 respectively), followed by works (37%, 34% and 30%) and lastly by services (22%, 28% and 29%) [Graph 6].

Graph 6

3.1.7. An analysis of the breakdown of the total contract amount by procurement method shows that goods and works collectively account for 86 and 90% of the total contract value from 2005 to 2007. A review of the period suggests that the works contracts amounts predominated in 2005, 2006 and 2007, with respective percentages of 58%, 63% and 76%. As was to be expected, the consultancy contracts were the smallest in terms of value, accounting for 12% in 2005, 14% in 2006 and 9% in 2007 respectively (Graph 7).

3.2. Contract Distribution Between Regional and Non-Regional Firms[3]

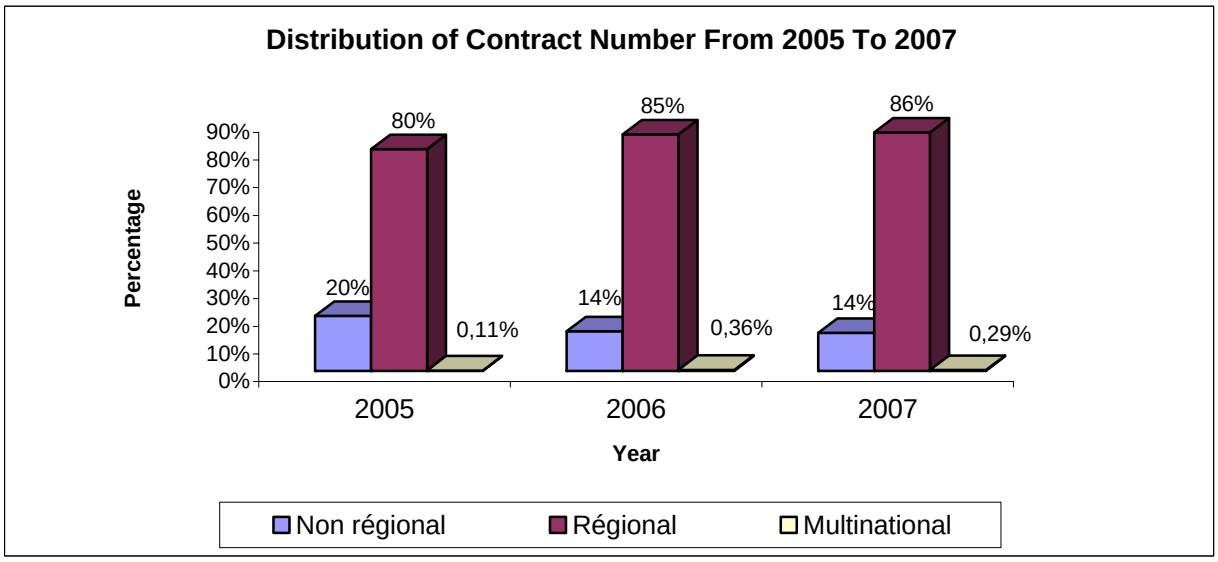

3.2.1. The distribution of contracts between regional and non-regional firms in 2007 was as follows: 13.7% of the number for non-regional firms as against 86% for regional firms, and 0.3% for multinationals[4]. From 2005 to 2007, the number of contracts for regional firms increased steadily, up from 80% in 2005 to 85% in 2006, reaching 86% in 2007. Figures for the non-regional firms continued to fall: 20% in 2005, 14% in 2006, and 13.7% in 2007. The proportion of multinationals is still rather marginal (Table 5 and Graph 8).

[4] The term “multinational” normally refers to UN agencies (IAPSO, UNICEF, etc.)

Graph 8

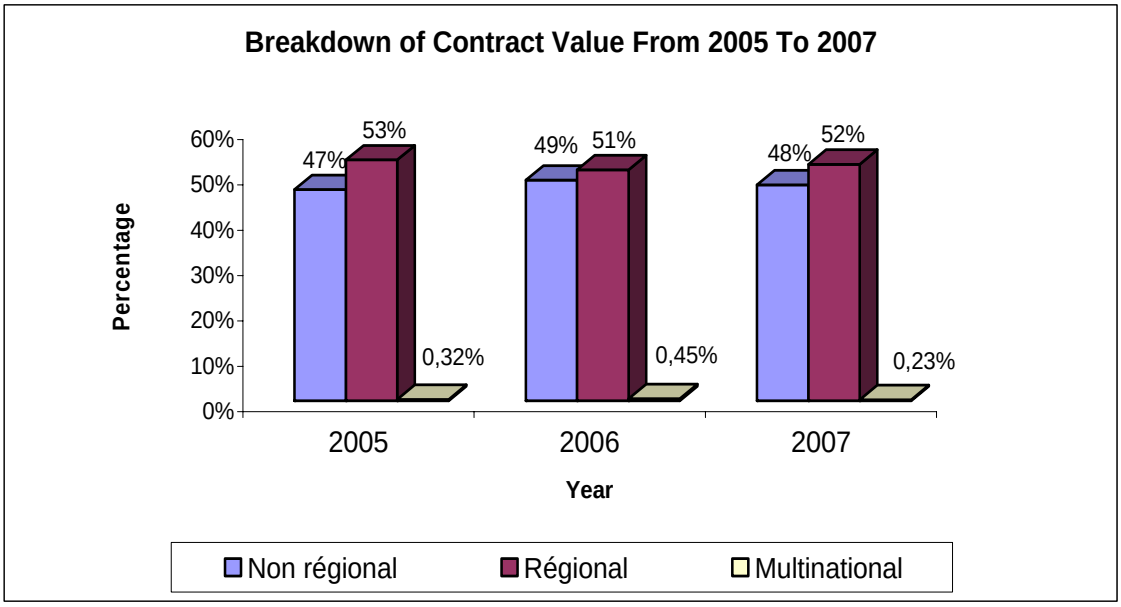

3.2.2. In terms of value, non-regional firms account for 47.6% of the total contract amount against 52.2% for the regional firms and 0.2% for multinationals. There was a slight increase in the share of regional firms (from 51% in 2006 to 52.2% in 2007) and an equivalent drop in the share of non-regional firms (from 49% in 2006 to 47.6% in 2007). The multinational share is still very small accounting for 0.2% in 2007 against 0.45% in 2006 (Table 6 and Graph 9).

3.3. Trend of Bank Disbursements[5] from 1997 to 2007[6]

3.3.1. The total volume of Bank Group disbursements rose significantly in 2007, up from UA 1,239 million to UA 1,616 million.

3.3.2. This rise reflects the increase in the disbursement volume from the ADB window up from UA 548 million to UA 885 million (or an increase of 61%) and that of the ADF window up from UA 685 million to UA 725 million (that is to say an increase of 6%). Disbursements from the Nigeria Trust Fund (NTF) also increased slightly from UA 5.4 millions to UA 5.9 million (or an increase of 9%) (Graph 10).

[5] Source FFCO

[6] There is a very big difference between the contract amount allocated in a year and the disbursements made in that same year. Indeed, contracts awarded in a given year can be implemented over several years and therefore can be disbursed over several years.

4. CHARACTERISTICS OF THE PROCUREMENT PROCESS

4.1. Introduction

4.1.1. In efforts to make the data processed relevant, only contracts above UA 50,000 were subject to statistical analysis in this chapter. The present sample contains 844 contracts, amounting to UA 759 million or 98% of the total value of contracts awarded in 2007. This contract sample is the subject of the ensuing chapter.

4.2. Procurement Methods

4.2.1. Regarding the number of contracts by procurement method, 261 were awarded through international competitive bidding (or 31%), 329 contracts through local competitive bidding (or 39%), and 151 were awarded through short lists (or 18%) (Table 7).

[8] According to Bank regulations consultants should be recruited on the basis of competition based on short lists. Some project manangers enter into the SAP, the ICB, LIC or NCB as procurement methods for consultancy services but in the final analysis short lists are always establised. On the above graph, the SHL (short list) method was used in an overall manner.

4.3. Bid Participation [9]

4.3.1. This section deals with the bid contract amounts[8], their number and bid information received. In 2007, 2,391 bids were received for the 1,389 contracts approved, which is an average of 1.72 bids per contract. The 2,391 bids were from 1,182 separate bidders. 1728 bidders had taken part in 1120 contracts in 2006 (an average of 1.54 bids per contract).

4.3.2. Firms in regional member countries presented 82.2% of bids whereas their non-regional counterparts presented 17.6% of bids. In terms of value, and with reference to 2006, the share of regional firms rose from 40.9% to 57.9%, whereas that of non-regional firms fell from 58.9% to 41.8%. The share in the value of multinational bids is still very marginal (Table 10).

In terms of the nationality of firms taking part in competition bidders from China take the lead with 14.3%, followed by Morocco (8.2%), Tunisia (7.2%), Uganda (6.1%) and France (5.8%) of the total bid value (Graph 13). In 2006, the United States led the way (15.1%) followed respectively by France (9.5%), Switzerland (8.0%), China (6.1%, Burkina Faso (5.4%).

4.3.4. In terms of the number of bids, the following countries stand out: Uganda (10%), Kenya (9.6%) and Tunisia (8.4%). In 2006, in the lead was Uganda (9.3%), followed by Ghana (7.3%) and Mali (6.6%).

4.3.5. Regarding bid value for participation in international competitive bidding the following countries take the lead: China (15.9%), Morocco (11.4%), France (7.6%), Germany (7.6%) and Tunisia (7.2%) [Graph 14]. In 2006, countries in the lead were: the United States (22.4%), Switzerland (11.4%), France (11.3%), China (8.3%), Spain (6.6%), Germany (5.4%) and Morocco (4.6%).

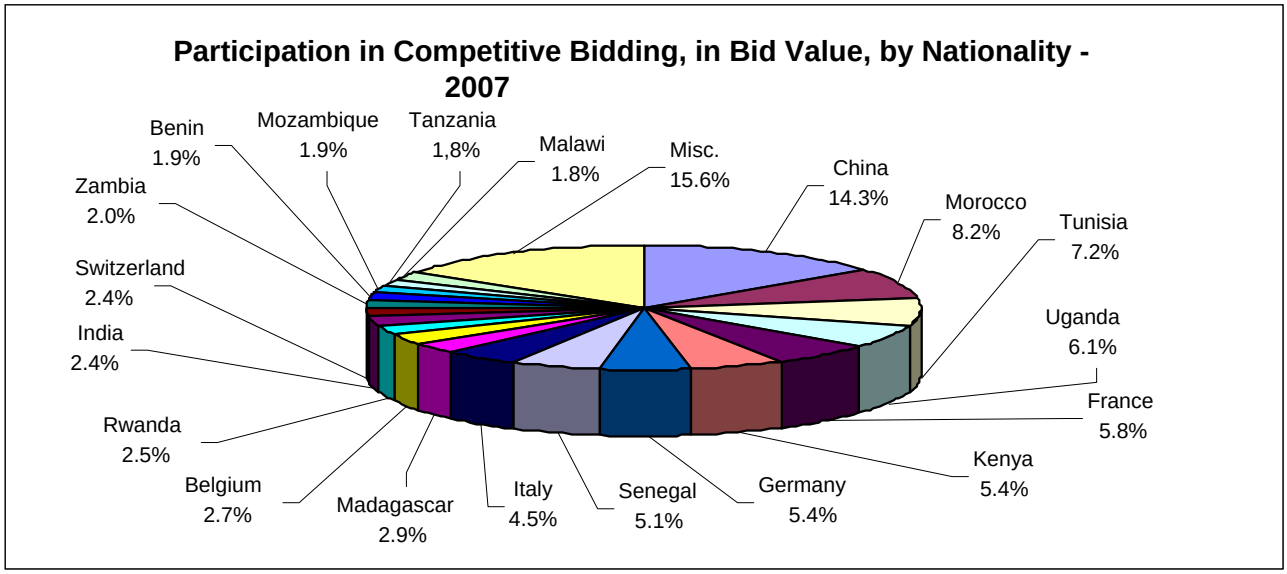

4.3.6. As for the bid value in national competitive bidding, Ugandan bidders took the lead (18.9%) followed by those of Tunisia (11.8%), Rwanda (11.7%), and Zambia (9.5%) (Graph 15). In 2006, bidders from Burkina-Faso came first (12.6%), followed by those of Malawi (9.2%), Ghana (7.8%), and Cameroon (7%).

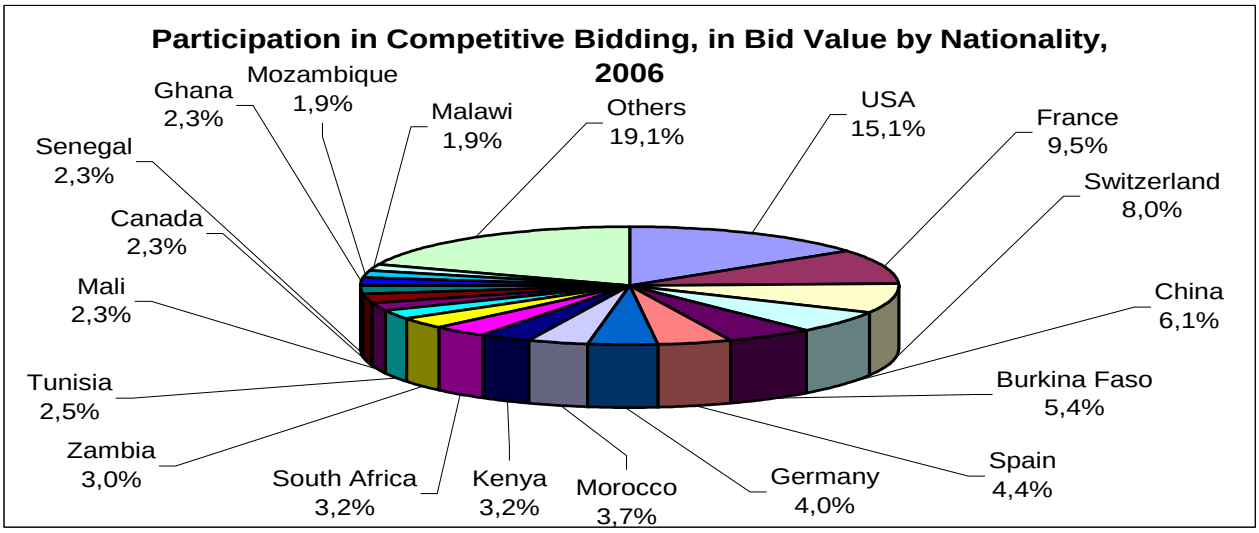

[9] The statistics on which this analysis is based are incomplete because in a number of cases only the award winners, not all bidders were registered into the project management system.

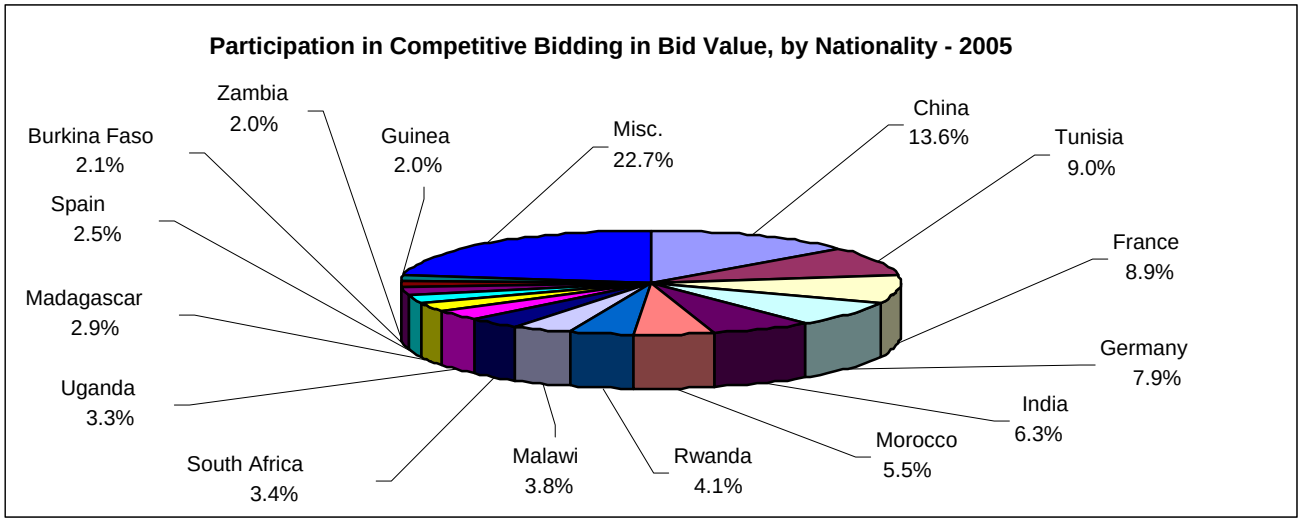

[8] The total bid amount represents the total number of contracts in competition for which the bidders registered in a given country took part in the bidding. This variable is used to calculate the bid value of a country.

4.3.7. For contracts awarded through international short lists, in bid value, bidders from China took the lead with 29.7%, followed by Madagascans (18.5%), Canadians (8.7%), Kenyans (5.6%) and French (5.6%) (Graph 16). In 2006, bidders from Canada were in the lead with 23% of the bid value, followed by French (8.8%), Senegalese (7.8%), South Africans (7.2%) and Ghanaians (7.1%).

5.1.1. In contract financing terms, the ADF (African Development Fund) window's share rose slightly from 61.5% in 2006 to 66.5% in 2007. The ADB (African Development Bank) window's share, for its part, increased from 31.4% in 2005 to 37.6% in 2006 and then to 31.6% in 2007. The share of the NTF (Nigeria Trust Fund) window is still marginal, although it is on the rise: it financed 0.9% of the contract value in 2007, as against 0.3% in 2006 and 0.1% in 2005.

5.1.2. In terms of the number of contracts, the ADB window financed 12% in 2007 compared to 14.4% in 2006 and 20.3% in 2005. The ADF window accounted for up to 86.2% in 2007 as against. 84.3% in 2006 and 78.4% in 2005. (Table 11 and Graph 22).

5.2. Procurement Document Processing Timeframe

5.2.1. The timeframes for processing procurement documents (at borrowing country and Bank levels) were analysed using a sample of 190 contracts in 2007, compared with 211 contracts in 2006, that is to say, a 10% decrease in the sampling size. In terms of proportion, the 211 contracts processed in 2006 represented 19% of the annual total, while in 2007, the sample of 190 contracts represented 14% of all contracts.

5.2.2. During the procurement of goods and works by executing agencies in the context of Bank Group-financed projects in 2007, statistics show that the process takes an average of 15.7 months from initial receipt of the procurement documents to receipt of the signed contracts. This figure was 18.3 months in 2006. This general average overshadows the average variations of the different regions ranging from a maximum of 28.8 months for the North Region to a minimum of 8.3 months in the East. To be more specific, the average time required from receipt of the procurement documents up to their approval by the Bank is one month (1.3 months in 2006). Between this approval by the Bank and receipt of the bids by the borrowers, there is an average lapse of 6.8 months, (6.8 months also in 2006). It takes an average of 11 days (12 days in 2006) from receipt of bids to opening of bids; from opening of bids to approval of contracts takes 5.3 months (6.8 months in 2006); from contract approval to contract signature the timeframe is 1 month (1.8 months in 2006). Furthermore, the average timeframe between signature of the contract by the executing agency and the Bank's receipt of the signed contract is 1.1 month (1.2 months in 2006). (Table 12)

5.2.3. The procurement of consultancy services by borrowers in 2007 took an average of 13.1 months from initial reception of request for proposals and the Bank's receipt of the final contract. (Table 13). This time-frame was 14.4 months in 2006. Although there was a significant drop in 2007, it is still very high and can be explained in part by the fact that 6.5 months or half of the period is lost between the initial opening of bids by borrowers and approval of the evaluation by the Bank. It must be recalled that consultancy services require a submission of technical and financial proposals in separate envelopes and that there are two stages to the evaluation. In accordance with Article 3.8.11 of the Rules of Procedure for the Use of Consultants, each stage may require Bank approval which takes time. Measures must be taken by the Operations Department to reduce this timeframe which averages between a minimum of 4.6 months in the North region and a maximum of 19 months in the West region. More specifically, on average, it takes: 23 days for borrowers to obtain approval of the Bank's request for proposals against 1 month for the goods and works procurement documents; 3.4 months between the processing of these approved documents and the reception of the proposals, against 6.8 months in the case of goods and works; 4 days between receipt and opening of bids against 11 days in the case of goods and works; 6.5 months from opening of bids to approval of evaluations, against 5. months in the case of goods and works; 1.5 months between approval of evaluations and signature of the contracts (2.8 in the case of goods and works); (vi) 3.5 months from signature of the contracts to reception of the signed contracts (but 1.1 months for goods and works).

5.2.4. For the procurement of goods, works and consultancy services, the average timeframe between reception of the bidding documents and that of the signed contracts was 14.4 months as against 16.4 months in 2006 and 17.8 months in 2005. The average timeframe dropped considerably (by 2 months) in 2007 (Table 14).

5.3. Claims

5.3.1. During 2007, 15 claims were registered by the Bank against 13 in 2006, i.e. an increase of 15%. Most bidders have now integrated into their strategy the use of due process systems available under the procedures to express their disapproval, when they feel they have been wronged. This trend confirms the progress achieved in recent years in terms of transparency and a greater confidence of the players in the monitoring and control mechanisms of the procurement systems.

5.3.2. Of the 15 claims, OSAN received 6, OINF, OSHD, OWAS and CGSP received 3, 2, 1 and 1 respectively (Table 15).

Claims Received in 2007

Department	Number
OSAN	6
OINF	3
OSHD	2
OWAS	1
CGSP	1
Other	2

5.3.3. The claims examined concerned the following aspects of the procurement process:

- Lack of transparency in the bid evaluation process ;
- Irregularities in the context of bid evaluation (application of technical specifications, short list, associations, incomplete files, cancellation of the lowest offers, etc...);
- Fraudulent manoeuvring on competitors who do not have the required technical quality to provide the service;
- Original regulation;
- Conflict of interest.

5.3.4. The claims concerned projects in 10 countries. As to the sectors concerned, 4 claims came up in the agricultural sector and the others came up in the infrastructure, education, water and mining sectors.

5.3.5. Most of the claims processed were judged inadmissible and were rejected. They stemmed from cases based on unjustified accusations. Regarding the others, the Borrower was asked to investigate and provide the plaintiffs with the appropriate answers. No case was retained for monitoring, or submitted to the Procurement Review Committee (PRC) for examination.

5.4. Procurement Review Committee (PRC)

5.4.1. As mentioned earlier no case was submitted to the Procurement Review Committee (PRC) in 2007.

5.5 Contract Amendments[10]

Introduction

5.5.1. In 2007, the Bank approved 134 amendments for a total of UA 5.98 million (against 82 amendments for a total of UA 19.6 million in 2006). The amendments can be sub-divided into two groups: those relative to contracts approved in 2007 (10 amendments) and those relative to contracts approved before 2007 (124).

5.5.2. The highest rate representing the percentage of the amount of the amendment against the amount of the initial contract 48%. The corresponding amendment is UA 48 649, 32 and it concerns a contract worth UA 100 659. The lowest rate was 0.12%. The corresponding amendment is worth UA 6 316 and concerns a contract worth UA 5 325 383.

Amendments to Contracts Approved in 2007

5.5.3. There are 10 amendments to contracts approved in 2007, and concern contracts for 6 projects and concern only about 0.7% of the total number of contracts approved in 2007. In value, these 10 amendments represent 0.1% of the total amount of contracts approved 2007. (Table 16).

Other Amendments Approved in 2007

5.5.4. There are 124 other amendments approved in 2007 but concern contracts approved prior and include 112 positive amendments. These positive amendments amount in all to UA 15.96 million and concern contracts approved between 2002 and 2006.

5.5.5. A study of the size of positive amendments approved in 2007, relating to contracts approved before then, shows that 33.1% of the amendment value was mainly for unit amounts at least higher than UA 1 million or 2.7% of the total number of amendments. In 2006, 54% of the value was concentrated on unit amounts higher at least than UA 1 million. The group representing the highest number of amendments for 2007 (30.4%) corresponds to that for amendments under UA 15,000 which cover only 1.2% of the amendment value (Table 17).

5.5.7. The study of amendment distribution by type of contract shows that those approved in 2007 concerned mainly works contract: 77.5% of the amendment value and 56.3% of the number. The services contract amendments accounted for 10.8% of the amendment value and 29.5% of the number. Those for goods contracts represented 11.7% in value and 14.3% in number (Table 19). In 2006, works totalled 80.5% of the amendment value and 502% of their number.

5.5.8. In terms of distribution by region, the Operations Department, South Region approved 44.5% of the 2007 amendment value. It is followed by the East (33.4%), North (11.6%) and West (9.4%). In 2006, the South Region was the strongest in value with 43%. Furthermore, contracts concerning multinational type projects registered 2 amendments (Table 20).
